

National Ayrshire Queen Contest

RULES

1. Each candidate must be a junior member in good standing of the Ayrshire Breeders' Association.
2. A candidate must be between the ages of 16-21 by December 31st of the current convention year.
3. Each candidate must enter on an official entry blank, signed by her parent or guardian.
4. Each candidate, (or her state association, if applicable), is responsible for her own expenses in conjunction with the contest.
5. Candidates will be judged by a committee on poise, personal appearance, general intelligence, speaking ability and knowledge and experience with Ayrshires.
6. Each candidate must sign a National Ayrshire Queen Code of Conduct Form.
7. The Queen shall conform to all the rules and regulations outlined in the Code of Conduct.
8. The Queen must provide her own chaperone for events particularly if she is less than 18 years of age.
9. The Queen's responsibilities include being at the National Convention (both the year she is selected and the following year for the crowning of the new queen) and attending at least one National Junior Show (i.e. Eastern States, Harrisburg, Madison, or Louisville) and is encouraged to attend as many as possible.
10. The first runner-up's responsibilities are to fulfill the responsibilities of the Queen if she is unavailable to attend an official Ayrshire function.
11. Expenses incurred during the commission of National Queen Duties during her reign will be the responsibility of the individual and/or her family. The National Queen will receive $500 from the National Ayrshire Youth Fund to help with travel expenses; $250 will be paid after she attends one national show, with the balance being paid following the National Convention where her reign is concluded. The National Queen is permitted to obtain sponsorship from individuals and state organizations to assist with travel expenses.
12. All applicants must be available to assist with youth activities at the National Convention, including the Youth Fun Auction, or as requested by Youth Committee members. Contestants are expected to be appropriately and tastefully dressed throughout the National Convention. Attire should be formal for the awards banquet, business attire for the interview, and business casual for other activities. Jeans are appropriate for farm visits.
13. The winner of the National Ayrshire Queen Contest shall be named the National Ayrshire Queen. The first runner-up shall be named the National Ayrshire Princess.

NATIONAL AYRSHIRE QUEEN CODE OF CONDUCT FORM

- I. The National Ayrshire Queen shall represent the Ayrshire Association at all times when on official public appearances that have been approved by the Ayrshire Youth Committee, and shall abide by the following guidelines:
 - a. She shall promote the Ayrshire Association, the Ayrshire cow and her product.
 - b. She shall uphold the highest ideals of ladylike conduct, dress, poise and personality
 - c. She shall not consume any alcoholic beverages while representing the Ayrshire Association at any Ayrshire function.
2. The selection of the Ayrshire Queen is limited to single candidates, never married and never had a child. A candidate must be between the ages of 16-21 by December 31 of the current convention year. In the event the National Ayrshire Queen marries during the year of her reign, she shall be expected to forfeit her title to the first runner-up, the National Ayrshire Princess.
3. The National Ayrshire Queen Banner and Crown shall be accessorial if the attire and occasion suggest. The National Ayrshire Queen shall avoid informal attire as much as possible on official occasions of official representations.

If, for any reason, the National Ayrshire Queen cannot uphold the above standards, she will be expected to forfeit her title to the first runner-up, the National Ayrshire Princess, upon notification by the Youth Committee.

I have read the Code of Conduct for the Ayrshire Queen Contest and promise that if I am selected as the National Ayrshire Queen, I will abide by the Code of Conduct with the understanding that any violation may result in the forfeit of my title.
